The Talk of The Campus

Your Reactions

THE PREDICTION of "remote reactions" to some of the graduates in the Class of 1959 "to your stay at Juniata" proved a timely and interesting subject at the Alumni Day dinner June 6.

Somewhat curiously enough, the reactions were not given by the college president nor the commencement speaker, but by "humble medic"—Dr. W. Newton Long, Jr. '40, of Baltimore.

Dr. Long '40

Dr. Long's first prediction was "that some of you will continue your education for the rest of your lives." He pointed out that Juniata has bequeathed one of the most valuable possessions—intellectual curiosity with orderly study habits.

Continuation of formal education was not what he was talking about. Reading, participation in the great books, discussions, keeping informed on current events and establishing a stand on political issues and human problems were the opportunities to which he referred.

"You will find an hour of the day to do this (read) even when making a living or changing diapers and dusting the home has left you tired and bored," Dr. Long maintained.

SECOND PREDICTION of Dr. Long was that "some of you will recall Juniata and its professors every day of your lives."

"It goes without saying that some of these memories will be decidedly unpleasant—a failed exam, a fractured romance, an objectionable roommate . . ." But there will be memories of a satisfying nature, too.

Four years of "a very special environment of daily contact of students with faculty whose common goal is transfer of knowledge and acquisition of wisdom" were described by the speaker.

"Some will remember Juniata because of the idealism of its founders, its trustees, and especially its men and women of the faculty. These latter serve the college well for a fraction of the salaries most of you will command. They have made a very tangible financial sacrifice for the purpose of improving men's minds and for the purpose of perpetuating a tradition which undergirds all true education, that of translating knowledge into service."

THE LAST PROPHECY of the Baltimore physician was that "some of you will endeavor to give to the students of the next five decades what you received—a college education in a liberal arts college."

"We all know of the impending and almost inevitable shortage of college opportunities for the class of 1970 . . . There are several ways to meet the problem . . . Some of you will be more than onlookers in these tasks . . . You will be the professors, the trustees, the contributors to the colleges of the future."

Dr. Long repeated that he "hoped for you three hopes: that your student days will never end, that you remember Juniata for the sacrifice and service of its faculty, and that you be actively concerned in the colleges of tomorrow."

Alumni Elect

ELECTION of Denton B. Emmert '36, organization planning manager for the Ford Motor Co., Dearborn, Mich., as alumni representative on the board of trustees and Cyrus O. Caulton '29, Bryn Mawr executive with RCA, as national president of the Alumni Association was announced at the annual dinner June 6.

Mr. Emmert '36

Other officers of the association elected are:

Dr. Paul Bechtel '32, professor of English, Wheaton College, Wheaton, Ill., first vice-president; Mrs. Olin Brougher '38, a homemaker from Johnstown, second vice-president; and Rex Hershberger '50, an insurance man from Martinsburg, Pa., representative on the executive committee.

In addition, the alumni cast an overwhelming vote in favor of the revised Alumni Association constitution.

Stimulating

NICE TO BE BACK and "always so stimulating" was the way Dr. John E. O'Donnell, D.D.S. '43, Le Moyne, Pa., expressed it to the Alumni Secretary after the June Commencement weekend.

We quote: "It does my heart good to see such dedicated people and to hear repeated the ideals JC stands for and strives for. I always feel so good after being at Juniata."

Around The Campus

124 Degrees

JUNIATA's largest class of June graduates—124—received bachelor's degrees at Commencement Monday, June 8.

The College also honored its Commencement speaker, Ewald B. Nyquist, deputy commissioner of education for the State of New York, with an honorary Doctor of Laws degree.

Dr. Nyquist emphasized the theme of the ceremonies—teaching in education—in his address to the class of 69 men and 55 women. The ceremonies closed the college's 83rd year.

Following Dr. Nyquist's address, President Ellis conferred 55 bachelor of arts degrees and 69 bachelor of science degrees.

Eleven of the seniors were graduated with honors. They were: Barbara R. Walls, Philadelphia; Joan A. Fyock, Harrisburg; Barbara J. Shaffer, Ridgway; Maxine C. Ross, Altoona; Samuel D. Shore, McClure; Bonnie C. Gunther, Berwick, all magna cum laude.

Terry E. Fouse, Baltimore, Md.; Kathryn Holsinger Ott, Pittsburgh; George G. Hess, Collingswood, N. J.; Arthur G. Norris, Hanover; and Kay L. Taylor, Pennsauken, N. J., all cum laude.

Seven Promoted

SEVEN MEMBERS of the faculty were promoted following the close of the college year in June.

Advanced to the rank of associate professor were: Dr. John R. Comerford, biology; Mrs. Marjory L. Joseph, home economics; Thomas J. Nelan, economics. A. William Engel, Jr. was given the title of Lecturer in English in this rank.

Three others were promoted to assistant professors: Wilfred G. Norris, physics; William R. Shaffer, physics; and Miss Gladys C. Weaver, education.

Three Honored

THREE SENIOR members of the faculty of the College have been honored for their "service to the cause of Christian education" by the annual conference of the Church of the Brethren.

Distinguished Service Certificates have been presented to Dr. Harold C. Binkley, professor of English; Dr. Edgar S. Kiracofe, professor of education; and Dr. Homer C. Will, professor of biology.

The awards were made at the Education Commission of the Church of the Brethren at the conference in Ocean Grove, N. J.

The Commission observed that a total of 91 years of service was represented by the "distinguished careers" of the three professors.

Dr. Kiracofe was recognized for 35 years service—22 of which has been at Juniata College as chairman of the department of education. Dr. Will has served 30 years and is the senior member of the faculty; Dr. Binkley has 26 years service at Juniata College.

New Registrar

HANS ZBINDEN, an instructor in modern languages at the College during the past year, was appointed registrar effective after Commencement.

Mr. Zbinden, a native of Philadelphia, taught German during the one year leave of absence of Prof. George T. Dolnikowski '52. He has taken over the registrar's duties which were handled this year on a part-time assignment by A. William Engel, Jr.

Mr. Engel, director of public information, served as acting registrar since the resignation of James L. Bray last June.

In announcing the appointment, President Calvert N. Ellis stated that Mr. Zbinden will continue as a member of the faculty, but his instructional duties have not yet been assigned. Mr. Engel will resume full-time duties in public information.

Mr. Zbinden is a graduate of Wittenberg College, Springfield, O., in 1953. He received a master of arts degree in German literature from the University of Pennsylvania in 1955.

Prior to joining the Juniata faculty last September, Mr. Zbinden taught at Greenbrier Military School, Lewisburg, W. Va. He served in the U. S. Army for two years as a translator.

His parents, the Rev. and Mrs. Hans-Otto Zbinden, live at 813 West Lehigh Ave., Philadelphia. His father is a Lutheran minister. Mr. Zbinden is married and has one daughter.

Mr. Zbinden

New Course

A NEW COURSE in education, titled "The Teaching of Exceptional Children" was offered this summer term. The instructor was Donald A. Miller, assistant superintendent of Huntingdon County schools.

Enjoyable Music

A CHORUS of 115 men and women sang Handel's oratorio "Solomon" in one of the musical highlights of Commencement weekend. Singers from the college choirs, faculty, staff, other students and alumni participated under the direction of Prof. Donald S. Johnson.

Another musical program which added to the Commencement weekend entertainment was the Saturday

Granted Leave

DR. GEORGE B. CLEMENS '36, chairman of the department of modern languages at the College, has been granted a leave of absence for the fall term for travel and study in Europe.

Prof. and Mrs. Clemens will sail August 28 to travel in England, France, Italy, Spain and Germany. Professor Clemens will attend classes at the Sorbonne in France beginning in mid-October. They will return in December.

Preview College

COLLEGE-MINDED high school students who belong to the Church of the Brethren had an opportunity to preview campus life at the College April 18.

The students, along with ministers and youth counselors, were guests of Juniata on Brethren Campus Day "to observe this church-related college of liberal arts during a typical day."

The day's program, planned by the Rev. Clarence H. Rosenberger '36, director of church relations, gave students a chance to visit classes and obtain first hand information on the liberal arts program from the director of admissions and college students.

A forum for adults was held in the Stone Church of the Brethren on the campus. President Calvert N. Ellis was chairman of a seven-man panel on the subject "Juniata College—An Arm of the Church."

Representatives of the church districts on the panel were the Rev. G. Arthur Hunn, Meyersdale; the Rev. Berkey E. Knavel, Roaring Spring; and Stanley Davis, Sr., Lansdale. The college was represented by Harold B. Brumbaugh '33, assistant to the president; John T. Fike '35, treasurer, and Dr. Morley Mays '32, dean of the college.

Main attraction of the afternoon was the Juniata College Invitational Scholastic Relays—a track and field event which attracted more than 300 schoolboy athletes from Central Pennsylvania.

SPARKLING CROWN on a sparkling queen of the May, Ann D. Larkin '59, Pittsburgh, is placed by Ronald W. Wertz '59, Lewistown. Not only was Ron the escort for Ann at the May Day festivities, but he also is her "real life" escort—a happy coincidence! More than 1,000 guests witnessed the day's traditional activities. Miss Larkin's maid of honor was Janice M. Christie, Jerome, Pa.; seniors were Bonnie L. Meadows, Hollidaysburg, and Sandra S. Johnston, Harrisburg.

Science Grant

THE NATIONAL SCIENCE Foundation has awarded a grant of $8,160 to Juniata for support of an "undergraduate research participation program" under the direction of Dr. B. Edwin Blaisdell, professor of chemistry.

Ten students will be used as "actual participants" for a one-year study of the photochemistry of dyes in organic solvents. Work will be done in the biology, chemistry and physics departments.

As part of the agreement, Juniata will support the project by providing $2,500 for expendable supplies and materials.

Aiding Dr. Blaisdell in supervising phases of the study will be Dr. Donald M. Rockwell, professor of chemistry; Dr. John R. Comerford '50, associate professor of biology; Wilfred G. Norris '54, assistant professor of physics.

The objective of this experimental program, according to National Science Foundation, is "to determine through a large scale and broadly based trial whether providing superior undergraduate students with an experience in research participation under the direction of college faculty members can make an important contribution to science education."

Trustees Elect Long as Chairman

W NEWTON LONG, Baltimore industrialist, has been elected chairman of the board of trustees of the college to succeed the late Henry B. Gibbel '26.

Mr. Long is chairman of the board of the Miller Chemical and Fertilizer Corp. He has been a trustee of Juniata since 1923 and a prominent layman of the Church of the Brethren.

Two Huntingdon men were elected to fill offices vacated by retirement. Chalender H. Leshner, a member of the board since 1947, was selected as vice-chairman to succeed Dr. Clyde V. Mierley '96, also Huntingdon. John W. Swigart '30, insurance executive, was elected to replace Dr. Ross D. Murphy '12, Shipensburg, as secretary of the board.

Both Dr. Mierley and Dr. Murphy were elected as trustees emeriti and were recognized for "their long-time service to the board of Juniata College." One other member, Ardie E. Wilt '90-93, Altoona, was elected trustee emeritus after serving since 1914. He received special commendation for his help in interpreting Juniata to the Church of the Brethren in his area.

Election of five new members to the board has been completed. Three of them were: C. Jewett Henry '29, Huntingdon attorney and past president of the national alumni association; Denton B. Emmert '36, Ford Motor Co. executive from Dearborn, Mich.; and Dr. Paul M. Robinson '35, president of Bethany Biblical Seminary.

Members elected from two church districts were: the Rev. G. Arthur Hunn, Meyersdale, Pa., from the Western District, and the Rev. Berkeley E. Knavel, Roaring Spring, from the Middle District.

Editor Named

DORIS K. BENNA, R. D. 1, Alum Bank, a sophomore, has been named editor of the college yearbook, The Alfarata, for 1960.

Nyce Bequest

A BEQUEST of $5,000 to Juniata College has been specified by the will of the late William G. Nyce ex '15, who died November 21, 1958.

Mr. Nyce was founder and owner of the Nyce Manufacturing Co., publishers of the "Nyce" line of greeting cards and commercial printing in Vernfield, Pa.

For many years he had been a contributor to Juniata and he was a long-time member of the 100 Club. Among his most significant contributions was the gift to furnish four rooms in the new residence hall.

All four of Mr. Nyce's sons and daughters attended Juniata: William P. '48, Mrs. Gerald F. (Gwendolyn) Hartzel '49, Beulah P. ex '52, and Alfred P. '56.

The late Mr. Nyce was graduated from the University of Pennsylvania after attending Juniata. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Mary Price Nyce in addition to the four children.

Chemistry Conference

JUNIATA was selected as one of 30 private liberal arts colleges to send a representative to an 11-day conference at the College of Wooster designed to have "far-reaching influence on chemistry teaching."

The conference, sponsored jointly by the National Science Foundation and the Division of Chemical Education of the American Chemical Society, was held June 22-July 2.

Dr. B. Edwin Blaisdell, professor of chemistry, represented the College. The department chairman, Dr. Donald M. Rockwell, was selected to attend a Summer Institute for college chemistry teachers at Indiana University.

Wooster Conference representatives considered "An Evaluation of Faculty and Undergraduate Research in the Liberal Arts College." They were selected from colleges where active programs of research are in progress—institutions considered "most productive" in source of chemistry Ph.D.'s.

Choir at Conference

THE JUNIATA COLLEGE choir presented a concert Saturday, June 20, at Ocean Grove, N. J., during the annual conference of the Church of the Brethren.

In addition to presenting separate selections for the Youth Night program, the choir sang jointly with the Elizabethtown College choir, which is directed by Prof. Nevin E. Fisher.

The Ocean Grove appearance marked the 47th concert which the Juniata choir presented during the 1958-59 college year. Prof. Donald S. Johnson is director.

Newcombe Advanced

ROBERT A. NEWCOMBE, former director of admissions at Juniata from 1952-57, became associate director of admissions at Bucknell University May 1. He had been assistant director.

Dajumo Elect

GEORGE D. SAVAGE, Collingswood, N. J., a staff engineer in the meter division of Philadelphia Electric Co., has been elected chairman of Dajumo, an association of parents of students at the College.

Mr. Savage, father of Roberta, a senior next year, succeeds Robert S. Over, Roaring Spring, who was chairman during the past year.

The new head of the parents' group is a graduate of Drexel Institute of Technology. His daughter is chairman of general activities on Student Senate at the College; another daughter is in Collingswood High School.

Elected vice-chairman was W. James Gaskell, Ellwood City, Pa., father of J. Richard '60, vice-president of Student Senate. Mr. Gaskell, who attended Geneva, is an assistant steel buyer.

The new secretary is Bernard J. Mattheiss, Baltimore, Md., a real estate and insurance broker. He has a daughter, Jean, class of '61.

Two others were elected to the executive committee of Dajumo. They are: Paul M. Ambrose, Hyattsville, Md., and James R. Graham, Johnstown, Pa. Both have sons in the class of '62.

Dajumo's objective has been defined as to "develop and advance Juniata's usefulness, magnifying opportunities."

Four at Workshop

FOUR MEMBERS of the faculty represented Juniata at the Danforth Foundation Campus Community Workshop held in Colorado Springs June 22-July 11.

Attending the three-week session were: Ronald L. Cherry, instructor in economics; Dr. John R. Comerford, associate professor of biology; Dr. Morley Mays, dean of the college; and Miss Miriam A. Schlegel, associate professor of education.

GEORGE D. SAVAGE

Moore Retained

PAUL R. MOORE, JR., has been retained as director of food service at the College after approval of an extension of leave for Miss Frances J. Mathias. The contract with Crotty Brothers, Inc., food service consultants of Boston, will be continued.

Miss Mathias served as institutional manager and assistant professor of home economics for 23 years. She was granted a leave of absence at her request last year.

Mr. Moore, a graduate of the University of New Hampshire, came to Juniata last September after directing the food service at Foxborough Manufacturing Co.

96 for Summer

THE COLLEGE opened its largest Summer Term since 1951 with an enrollment of 96 reported Monday, June 15. In 1951 there were 122 attending.

Registration figures show that 64 men and 32 women attended the first five-week session which ended July 18.

Mac Passes

THE DEATH of J. Clyde McCracken May 11, 1959, ended a long period of service to Juniata College by one of its most loyal and best known employees.

For more than 30 years (the exact number is in doubt), the familiar face—and flashlight—of "Mac" was seen about campus as he carried out his duties as night watchman.

As a writer in The Juniatian once pointed out about Mac: "One can always depend on him to come on duty at dark and to be around guarding the grounds until dawn."

Mac was on duty regularly through this college year until within a week of his death. He complained slightly of some aches and pains and decided to take off for several days. Then suddenly, on a Monday morning, he collapsed at his home at 1916 Washington Street and was rushed to the hospital by ambulance.

But Mac—age 72—was pronounced dead on arrival. Funeral services were held Wednesday, May 13.

Honor Service

TWENTY-SIX students at the College have been selected to a new Honor Service Club which was formed to recognize the student who is making "significant contribution" to extra-curricular activities while maintaining a 2.50 academic average. Jill A. Muir '60, Huntingdon, has been elected president.

STUDENTS at Juniata collected $1,994 during the campus-wide Juniata World Service Fund campaign. World University Service received $563, but almost equal shares went to foreign students aid, Brethren missions and the University of Madras.

Juniata Alumni Fund Report

Record High of 1,393 Contribute $76,328 to Alumni Fund in Year

TWENTY YEARS AGO, a loyal band of 535 persons launched the Juniata College Alumni Fund. And, as Dr. John N. Stauffer '36, president of the Alumni Association this year pointed out, "it has been the most important single outside source of funds which has kept Juniata strong."

Now the "loyal band" of 535 has increased this year to 1,393—an all-time high for number of contributors. Increasing the number of givers—broadening the base, as the development directors say—was one of the main targets of this year's program.

These alumni, parents and friends of the college gave a total of $76,328.18 to the Juniata Alumni Fund. This was a major share of the grand total of $144,093.96 obtained from all sources.

Sparkling the drive to obtain more contributors was the class competition which resulted in a "joust" among five classes (see story) for percentage participation. Both National President Stauffer and Alumni Secretary Harold Brumbaugh '33 described this "challenge" campaign as "a major step in the direction of greater participation."

The Classes of 1953 and 1955 finished in a dead-heat for participation among the classes since 1920. Each had 53 percent. Actually, 1955 edged 1953 in total number of contributors by one, 70 to 69.

In the ten best by participation for the classes from 1880 to 1919, the classes of '80, '88 and '91 contributed 100 percent.

The Class of 1911 topped all classes in amount contributed with $10,170 and in average contribution at $1,271.25.

Runner-up honors in the Top Ten for amount contributed was 1930 with $5,696.93. Class of 1897 was second in average contribution with $346.67.

DR. JOHN N. STAUFFER '36

In addition to the funds contributed through the Juniata Alumni Fund, the college also received $20,609 from foundations and $6,986 from industry and corporations, according to Charles Bargerstock '47, director of development. Mr. Bargerstock listed these names in The Totals for 1959.

(Editor's note: Gifts from foundations were not as high this year compared to the previous two years because of the Ford Foundation grants of $70,000 in 1957 and $77,500 in 1958).

The college obtained an additional $16,832 through its campaign among Church of the Brethren contributors under Clarence H. Rosenberger '36, director of church relations. The names of the contributors are included in the list which follows, but the total contributed is not figured into the class totals for the Alumni Fund.

Life income contracts totaling $17,000 and bequests of $4,962 augmented the overall giving to Juniata during the year.

20th Anniversary Alumni Fund Contributors for 1958-1959

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following list includes the names of all who contributed to the Alumni Fund during the college's fiscal year ending June 15, 1959. In a number of cases individuals received diplomas or degrees in various departments of the Brethren's Normal School and Juniata College. The name is listed in the year in which the most recent award was granted with preference given to bachelor degrees in most cases.

The Grand Annual Joust

THE CHALLENGE of class competition in fund-raising added a bit of flourishing activity to this year's Alumni Fund campaign.

In a "friendly" feud over percentage participation, the Juniata classes of 1957, 1956, 1955, 1954 and 1953 took to some statistical jousting. Curiously enough, the joust ended in a deadlock—a tie between the classes of 1953 and 1955. Each finished with 53 percent participation—considerably higher than the 30 percent participation for all alumni.

So all of the contributing members in each of the two classes will be awarded free passes to Homecoming events next October 17. That means a free luncheon and free pass to the Juniata-Lycoming football game.

This class competition began after hours of discussion by members of the executive committee with Fund Agents concerning Juniata's distinguished alumni fund. It was noted that increased giving had been evident, but no increase in number of contributors.

As a result of the discussion, these five classes decided to "meet the challenge" to improve their percentage participation. Heading the joust were the Fund Agents: Henry H. Gibbel '57, Klare S. Sunderland '56, George G. Pote '55, David M. Hercules '54 and Ronald L. Cherry '53.

From January until the close of books on June 15, these fund agents dreamed up a variety of tricks designed to improve class participation. Actually, the Joust accounted for 149 of the 190 new givers in the record high of 1,331 contributors among alumni.

Class	Class Roll	57-58 Alumni Fund		58-59 Alumni Fund

The Juniata Sports Parade

Athletic Awards

TWO HARRISBURG ATHLETES repeated and six others won alumni trophies for the first time during the past year.

Bill Berrier '60 was named outstanding football back for the second straight year and Don Ross '60 received the trophy for the top baseball performer again. J. Harold Engle '23 gives the football trophy and Charles F. Goodale, Jr. '39 contributes the baseball award.

Top-ranking athletes in seven major sports now are recognized each year with the presentation of individual trophies given by sports-minded alumni. The awards recognize excellence in performance, good sportsmanship and cooperation.

In addition to Berrier and Ross, other winners were: Bob Solomon '60, Wilkes-Barre, football line (George L. Weber '40); Herb Deuchar '59, New York, cross-country (C. Clifford Brown '29); Don Burnich '60, basketball (Jack E. Oller '23); Jack Vernocy '61, Coraopolis, golf (C. Blair Miller '49); Ray Pfrogner '60, Somerset, tennis (anonymous); and Frank Hrach '60, Pittsburgh, track (J. Foster Gehrett '16).

The cross-country award was given for the first time this year. All were selected by vote of the varsity squad and coaching staff with the approval of the physical education and athletics committee.

Juniors Lead Tribe

ATRIO of power-hitting juniors from Harrisburg paced the Juniata baseball team to another winning season during the 1959 campaign—7 victories, 6 defeats.

Don Ross, the Tribe's talented third baseman, was the pace-setter again with a .418 batting mark followed closely by shortstop Jim Berrier with a .407 mark for the season.

The only other Indian regular to finish above the .300 mark was Bill Berrier, centerfielder and Jim's twin brother who hit .323.

Sophomore Ron Reynolds of Mifflintown picked up three victories to pace the mound staff followed by freshman John Mullen of Huntingdon with two. James Huy of Pottstown and Richard Gessaman of North Wales each had one win.

Ross lead the Indian batters in nearly every department. His 23 hits and 22 runs scored were tops and he also held the mark for RBI's with 17. The slugging third sacker hit five home runs, three triples and three doubles in 55 trips to the plate.

Title to Gettig

JAY GETTIG, a junior at Juniata, reigns as the 1959 NCAA golf champion for the Atlantic Coast region after winning the two-day championship event June 9-10 at the American Legion Country Club, Mt. Union.

The champion from Verona, Pa., number one man on the Indians' golf team, fired a blistering four-under par 70 to add to rounds of 76 and 78. He finished with a two-over par total of 224 for the 54 holes.

Hofstra College of Hempstead, Long Island, carried off the four-man team championship with a combined total score of 963 in this first regional tournament for NCAA small colleges. Juniata was the host college.

Second place went to the University of Baltimore with a total of 975. Wesleyan of Connecticut was third with a team total of 998.

Jack Vernocy, another Tribe golfer from Coraopolis, Pa., finished second to the "red-hot" Gettig with a score of 228. He led the field after 36 holes.

Five colleges were represented in the field that featured a number of outstanding small college golfers.

Trophy to Brown

THE STANFORD MICKLE athletic trophy—symbolic of "a wholesome interest in sports and promotion of athletics" at Juniata—was awarded this year to Charles C. Brown, Jr. '59, Bellefonte.

Brown '59

A 21-year-old pre-law student who won the coveted Root-Tilden scholarship at New York University, Brown was a member of the track, cross-country and wrestling teams and had a brilliant record as a campus leader. During the past year, he was president of Student Senate and chairman of judiciary.

Among his accomplishments in the athletic program at Juniata were included sports editorship of the Juniatian as a sophomore and the Alfarata as a junior. He was an active intramural participant for four years.

'Chuck' will have his named inscribed on a plaque presented by the parents of Stan—Mr. and Mrs. Russell A. Mickle.

Chuck Moves Up

CHARLES A. (CHUCK) GODLASKY, assistant football and head wrestling coach, has accepted the position of head football coach at Slippery Rock State Teachers College in western Pennsylvania.

The personable Penn State grad joined the Juniata faculty as instructor in social studies and grid assistant in 1956. He became the Indians' first wrestling coach when the sport was added this year.

Alums Win Again

THE ALUMNI BASEBALL team took a 4-3 edge in the traditional series with the Varsity by winning a 6-2 decision behind Dr. Earl 'No-Hit' Detrick '52, Philadelphia physician, in the Alumni Day clash.

Looking Around the Locals

A NEW LOCAL association of the Juniata College Alumni Association was organized in Allentown on May 1. The general association now promotes 26 local associations in 13 sections of Pennsylvania, Baltimore, Boston, California, Chicago, Florida, New York, Northeastern Ohio, South Jersey, Southwestern Ohio, Upstate New York, Washington, D. C., and Wilmington, Del. The new group, known as the Lehigh Valley Association elected Dr. David Hercules '54 as president for 1959-60.

Fifty-one attended the 40th reunion of the Pittsburgh alumni group held April 10 at the College Club, Pittsburgh. Guest speaker for the occasion was Juniata's National Alumni President, Dr. John N. Stauffer.

The Y. M. C. A. Dairy Dine in Johnstown was the gathering spot for 63 Juniatiens from Cambria County on April 11. President Ellis was the speaker and ventriloquist, Bonnie Lafferty, a Juniatian freshman, provided the entertainment.

Seventy-two alumni from Central Pennsylvania area reminisced with each other at Lancaster's Stock Yard Inn on Saturday, April 11. On hand with many witty and humorous remarks was Dr. Homer C. Will. Music was provided by a campus instrumental quartet composed of Prof. Robert Currier, Robert Pierson, Miss Sally Prociuous and Dr. Ernest Wagner.

A small but friendly group of alumni from Southwestern Pennsylvania held their annual reunion on April 17 at The Adams House, Adamsburg. Dr. Donald M. Rockwell spoke on "Chemistry and You."

The Men's Varsity Quartet from the College provided the entertainment at the April 18 dinner of the Blair County alumni held at Replogle's Party House in Roaring Spring. Dr. Stauffer represented the National Alumni Association at the meeting.

The Hagerstown, Md., Church of the Brethren was the scene of the Waynesboro-Hagerstown alumni dinner Wednesday, April 22. Ron Morgan '56 acted as master of ceremonies. The speaker was President Ellis. Also on hand representing the college were John T. Fike and Mrs. Mary Horoschak.

Dr. John N. Stauffer brought the Northeastern Ohio alumni the latest news of campus events when the group met at the Smorgasbord at Stowe on April 25. Entertainment was provided by Miss Alice Hanawalt.

Upstate New York Juniatiens met at the Red Coach Inn, Niagara Falls for their May 2 dinner. The small but loyal group, some of whom had traveled as far as 200 miles, had as its speaker, Dr. Harold C. Binkley.

ALUMNI DINNERS continue to be one of the happy occasions of the year in various areas. The Blair County alumni gathered April 18 at Replogle's Party House, Roaring Spring, to hear Dr. John Stauffer '36, national president of the alumni association. Dr. Stauffer is seated at head table to the right of Jim Hershberger '50, president of the group. Entertainment at this dinner was provided by the varsity Quartet (seated at right near waitress).

An informal gathering was held by the California alumni at Rand's Round Up Restaurant in Los Angeles on May 8. Prof. and Mrs. Jack Oller represented the college. Slides were shown of the college and the group enjoyed many reminiscences.

Dean Paul M. Heberling and Secretary Brumbaugh brought greetings from College Hill to North Central Pennsylvania alumni at their annual dinner-meeting held at Ashurst Manor, Muncy, on May 23.

Michigan area alumni had an opportunity to join in an informal gabfest in Detroit, June 26, with Secretary Harold, C. H. Leshner, (trustee), and a dozen Juniatians. Five from Lycoming College also joined with the group.

From Germany comes word that a son, Wolf-Dieter, arrived on March 24 for Dr. and Mrs. Volker Hiemeyer.

Recipient of the degree master of arts in mathematics from The Pennsylvania State University on June 6 was Donald E. Koontz.

Harry J. Martin and his wife are the proud owners of a new home at 531 Pad-dock Rd., Ambler. They have two boys, Jeffrey, 4½ and Kevin, 2.

Peggie June Chandler and Donald W. Bracken were married May 2 in Govans Presbyterian Church, Baltimore. The Rev. Mr. Bracken is assistant pastor of Govans Church. Robert W. Wagoner of Pittsburgh served as best man. Among the ushers were Ronald L. Cherry of Huntingdon.

Bob and Jane Abel Folk recently notified the Alumni office of the birth of their second daughter, Susan, on October 24, 1958. The Folks also recently moved from Watchung to 22 E. Brown St., Somerville, N. J.

John G. Kisel was promoted from 2nd to 1st lieutenant in the medical service at Fort Dix. John and his wife, the former Kaydonna Bubeck '55 reside at 3374-B Harty Rd., Fort Dix, N. J., which will be their permanent address until December 1960.

James B. Lilly, a teacher in the Captain Jack Elementary Schools of Mt. Union, received a master of education degree from Penn State in June.

A Huntingdon resident, Mervin Metz, has been elected to fill the head football post at Southern Huntingdon County High School in Orbisonia.

On April 1 a second child, a son, arrived for the Carmon Sollenbergers. He has been named Blair Carmon. Rev. Sollenberger is still serving the Plum-creek Church of the Brethren at Shelocta.

A daughter, Maria Joan, was born on March 5 to the Michael T. Pastuszeks. Maria has a brother Michael, age 1½. Another note of interest is that Valley Forge Military Academy, the school from which Mike was graduated before attending Juniata, has elected him to the Board of Directors of the Alumni Association for a three-year term.

Word has been received of the April 24 marriage of Dr. Siu-Won Chan ex to Elsa Leon of Trenton, N. J.

A sister, Beth Ann, arrived on May 12

A Self-Portrait of '49ers

WHERE ARE the '49ers? Or a 10-year mystery is solved!

Some interesting information has been revealed by 12 members of the Class of 1949 who predicted their future ten years ago—and then sealed the envelope!

Of the 11 active members, eight were present Alumni Day, June 6, to open the package. The original group of 12 included: James E. Altman, Irwin, Pa.; Robert L. Anderson, Seaford, Va.; H. Donald Brocht, Robertsdale, Pa.; James P. Brumbaugh, Laurel, Md.; Vincent J. DeFeo, Elmhurst, Ill.; Herman S. Groninger, Jr., Seattle, Wash.; Irvin L. Groninger, Carlisle, Pa.; E. Ellsworth Hackman, Philadelphia; Jack Hallman, Elmira, N. Y.; Thomas E. Shoemaker, Smithville, Ohio; Bruce W. Sterner, Manheim, Pa.; and Fritz Stirner, Philadelphia.

Here's the story as presented by one of the members.

The time is May-June, 1949. The place is Juniata College. The chief characters are twelve Juniata students, ten of whom were to graduate in a matter of days. The seed of the mystery was germinated when one of the boys, Bob Anderson read an article in Life Magazine about a professor at C. C. N. Y. who had his students write a letter predicting what would happen to them in the next decade.

Anderson got with a group of his friends, told them of the idea, and suggested they do the same thing themselves. Everybody agreed that they would soon go their separate ways after having formed good friendships during their stay at Juniata and that this letter would be a very good way to keep them in touch with each other and guarantee getting together again. Also it would prove, they believed, a very interesting study of personality and psychology.

Twelve boys who were rather close-knit as roommates and hallmates scurried around and wrote letters to themselves predicting (1) what they would be doing in 1959 (2) what their buddies would be doing and (3) what the world situation would be. The letters were ceremoniously sealed and deposited in a large envelope along with the May 20th (1949) "Juniatian," the Spring Alumni Bulletin, several photographs of the boys, two phonograph records made at the old music house and a Varga pin-up girl from one (?) room. The valuable packet was signed, sealed and delivered to Harold Brumbaugh for safekeeping. Goodbyes and farewells were said as 12 Juniats left the Alma Mater to go out and live ten years. Thus the plot is set.

Then There Were 11

As the years rolled by, the packet rests in Harold's office and the boys keep in contact with each other by a round robin or circulating letter. One boy lost interest and dropped out leaving "11 little Indians." But the wives that were added took a very big interest in the project.

Time passed as it most certainly will do. The long-awaited Alumni week-end came on faster and faster. The group, which had by now named itself, TAU TAU (Together Tomorrow) met in Harold Brumbaugh's apartment on Saturday, June 6, for the exciting business at hand, opening that packet!

Of the eleven active members, eight (Bob, Jimmy, "Hack", Jack, Don, Tom, Bruce, and Irvin) were present which was much better than the 6 of 15 the C. C. N. Y. group had. Five of the boys brought for Stephen and Suzanne Darby. Their mother is the former Lois Robinson.

C. William Lauver ex received his Doctor of Dental Surgery degree from the University of Pittsburgh, June 10. Dr. Lauver was graduated magna cum laude. Dr. Lauver will set up general practice in Indiana. His new address is 828 Grant St., Indiana.

Employed by the Central Cove School District, Joan Stayer Hall has been teaching music in grades 1-6 in the Roaring Spring Elementary School. Joan is also kept busy with four year old Douglas Alan and a newly-acquired home in Loysburg.

The North Augusta, S. C., Woman's Club has chosen Mirian Landis Woodring as president for 1959-60.

Coy T. Hicks has been named varsity basketball coach at the Southern Huntingdon High School for the year 1959-60. Coy had previously taught and coached in Tyron.

their wives and two of these, their children. Herman could not come from Seattle, Wash., as they expect a child this summer. Vince, in Illinois, was travelling west to U. C. L. A. for the summer and the reason for Jim Altman's absence was not known.

Packet Is Opened

The mystery became more intense as the packet was opened and the contents inspected. The pin-up girl brought forth some whistles in spite of the wives present. Then, one by one, the boys broke open the sealed prophesies and read them without comment. After each was read the prophet told how he had done and the others asked questions.

Irvin predicted in 1949 that ten years hence he would be married, have two children, be making his living in a sociological field and live in Pennsylvania but not in a city. He hit it well. He is Chief Probation Officer in Cumberland County, lives in Carlisle, and had a child just recently.

Bruce thought he would be in some kind of business and be earning $7,000. He would have a home in the suburbs, a collie, some chickens, two girls and a boy. He missed it a bit. In 1959, he is a mathematician for Uncle Sam, has made his salary but lives in a housing development and does not have the dog or chickens or family of three. The Sterners do have a young daughter. A number of others predicted for Bruce a career in biology.

Don said he would teach music and then go to a conservatory. He said he would write an oratorio and a symphony. Also, he felt he would be quite bald. Teaching high school music is his work, but he's been too busy to compose and he still has considerable hair. His prediction to "beat Bob to a set of twins" has not worked out in either case.

Seventh Guess Is Right

Tom wrote seven different occupations in which he might be making a living in 1959. He showed up in the one listed 7th—minister of the Paradise Church of the Brethren in Ohio. Many others had him pegged to be a mathematician, but Jack said, "if his interests change I hope they lead him to the pulpit. I think he has the material in him to be a very good preacher." Tom himself wrote, "God will lead me into whatever field of endeavor He wants me in."

Jack was supposed to be in politics, the Air Force, government work, or sociology, according to the others. He himself thought of sociology or Episcopal priesthood. Jack has been in guidance and teaching in both college and public education.

Ellsworth hit it when he said in 1949 that he would be in the production end of some chemical or technical company. His work is Assistant Project Engineer making solid propellants.

Jimmy wrote, "I will either be highly successful in the building business or just getting my feet on financial ground to start over again." This is somewhat true. He has moved over into building supplies as a part owner and sales manager. His firm just opened a "Lumberteria," a serve-yourself building supplies.

Bob predicted that the ten-year venture would be successful which it was. He correctly named the Alley girl as his wife and said they would be raising a family. (They had a girl baby four days after the reunion). He indicated he was going into teaching, that he would go on to school and probably would switch to law. He went on to school but is still in high school teaching. Bob predicted Jack would travel to many far places. Jack prophesied the same for Bob, neither has.

Hard Times Predicted

Some general remarks about the letters are in order here. There was a slightly pessimistic tone to some of the letters as 1949's graduates were predicted "to have the hardest time in recent years to find jobs." Also, business was on a definite trend downward then. Several boys predicted a depression. One wrote "Business seems to be steadily going down. I don't see where we're going to get jobs."

The world situation was tense. Most predictions were similar to one that said, "There will not be a major war but many tense moments." One went philosophical and guessed that "some may become embittered, others more tolerant and calm; all will have a more down to earth attitude." Another turned poetic with the statement, "Music has been called the speech of angels—I will go further and call it the speech of God Himself."

Finally, one boy left 1949 with this thought, "Juniata has given its students something more important than vocational training, that is the deep appreciation of life itself, of people, and their distinctive personalities and values."

Now let's look at a summary "Portrait of Eleven 49'ers." Every one of the eleven is married and every one has had at least one child. (20 in all). All eleven have gone to school beyond Juniata! Six own homes, three having bought, three having built, four rent and one lives in a parsonage. Seven advanced degrees have been added including an M.Ed., B.D., M.S., 2 M.A.'s, and 2 Ph.D.'s. Four are Brethren, two Methodists, two are Lutheran and there is one each of the Episcopal, Evangelical and Catholic faiths.

Occupations represented are: probation officer, minister, mathematician, doctor, band director, two high school history teachers, one elementary teacher, chemical engineer, building supplies sales, and one in biology research. Those present were no longer college boys, but had filled out into mature adults. All are active in their communities and are fulfilling Juniata's destiny of making a contribution to society.

The mystery is concluded with another mystery. As a final act of business, the group decided unanimously to write another letter telling what will happen in the next ten years. What will be in those letters? This mystery will be solved in 1969!

Thrown out on the world in difficult times, when to work at all was a privilege, so innocent of futures, we still managed to make our mark and have a great deal of fun on the way, writes Dorothy Speicher Murray in a preview of the 25th reunion this year. She reveals:

Twenty-nine of us are, or have been, teachers. We are six doctors, seven in business, two librarians, seven ministers, one editor, one lawyer, four in government or public service, many are home-makers, not a single hobo or plutocrat among us.

Thirteen of us received master's degrees, two Ph.D.'s, and six M.D.'s. Fifteen of us went on to further study at what sacrifices and intellectual stimulation we can only remember with awe. Joe Long, Bill Kistler, Lyle Sherwin, Walter B. Watkin, Clara Evans Dailey, and Jim Shoenthal. Don Foulke, one of the Ph.D.'s is having a brilliant career in research and teaching after getting his degree from Rutgers in '41. The same is true of Jack Myers of the University of Texas, an expert in the "Physiology and Biochemistry" of algae.

Edie Replogle Eshleman, Louise Norris Dell, S. Elizabeth Hobbs Brown, Margaret Learn and Ella Mae Hadley Wilkins hold degrees, and my hat in particular is off to them. The other masters are James Cook, principal at Ebensburg, Tom Bramble, Ken Morse, William Ross, Roscoe Wareham. I expect to have thirty hours beyond the old A.B. by September, as do many of the other fifteen. Grace Westbrook Hall studied summers at Penn State for her position in the Williamsburg schools.

The business world took Ralph Over in the Williamsburg bank; Ron Rowland in insurance in Hanover; Don Settle and Forrest Burlew in the American Viscose Corporation at Lewistown; John Rodgers with his printing firm; Anne Petriken Slanitz in the San Diego Transit System; June Hoover Fike at the College, and Charles Stoyka is with the Pennsylvania Railroad.

Charlotte Fleck in the Fairfax, Va., County Library, and Margaret S. Learn are the two librarians. Charlotte should be up with the gals who earned a second degree for she has her library degree from Columbia.

Our ministers are John Reid, Floyd Aldrich, Milton Sealey, Ordo Pletcher, Clarence Lecrone, Daniel Brumbaugh, and Roscoe Wareham. Minister's wives are Helen Bowling Wilson, Mary Howe Robinson, Ida Pearce Turner, and Ida Rae Neiderhiser Rosenberger.
